NEW YORK. December 14.—Through thousands were still present there was a noticeable falling off to-day and to-night in the attendance on the six-day horse race at Madison Square Garden.

Riders fell so often at times when some team bid fair to gain a lap that reports were current of a probable revolt on the part of some of the contestants. During most of the day the pace was slow, the riders creeping around the track at a snail's pace. Some of them, including Boston, Henry Walther, Sammons and Bedell, who had to submit to the penalty of a lap by teaming away after mediocrities had deprived them of their partners, were much dissatisfied.

There was a ripple of excitement when late in the afternoon a fast sprint was started by Rout, closely followed by MacFarland. The result was the loss of a lap by Vanderstuyt and Stoll and Galvin and Wiley.

Official Denial.

Replies to criticisms which have been directed against the management of the race, all of the riders late to-night issued a联合 statement declaring that they were not responsible for the falls and expressing confidence in the fairness of the officials and the management of the contest.

MAN, A-HORSE, TO VISIT EVERY STATE CAPITAL

CORNELLVILLE, PA., December 14.—W. W. Minder, of Scranton, started on horseback yesterday on a trip in which he is to visit the capital of every state in the Union in the hope of showing that he cannot do it in four years.

Minder arrived in Cornellville at an early hour from Philadelphia. He will go to New York, D. C., and from thence he will go to Richmond, Va., then south, with the intention of visiting the Southern capitals during the winter.

It is estimated that he will travel more than 20,000 miles.

Minder had agreed to ride for the staffs of J. G. Schlesinger at New Orleans. At the recent Latonia meeting Minder showed that he was back to his old form.

Frankie Noll, the former featherweight champion, is the owner and trainer of the chestnut gelding "Distributor," which won a race a week ago at the Oakland track.
